TESTIMONIALS

Sam Powell

Account Executive, SixPR

I work for a PR firm and have had the opportunity to work with VentureFilm Studios on multiple projects for a variety of clients. VentureFilm has always exceeded expectations and goes above and beyond to ensure we have all formats necessary for both internal and external use. Their turnaround time is unmatched, as is their communication, professionalism and quality of work. We have worked with some of the region's most talented film crews over the years and could not be happier to have found VentureFilm, as we plan to use them as much as we can for years to come. Highly, highly recommend this team.

Our organization had an absolutely great project experience with Venture Film Studios! Their final product was excellent. Additionally, the journey of getting to that product was such a pleasure. Chris and his team actually spent the time to listen to what we wanted, were extremely helpful and responsive to us throughout the process, met the deadlines, came up with great suggestions, and were patient with our many requests/changes. We look forward to working with them in the future!
